

Kendrick Middle School

Kendrick Middle School will recognize and honor the county commission at the Fourth Annual Clayton County Commissioners Appreciation Breakfast Thursday at 7:30 a.m. in the school's Media Center.

"This is something that we began four years ago, and it is now an honored 'Kendrick tradition,'" said Principal Dan Ray. The event pays tribute to the county commission's collaboration with the school district and their support of education in Clayton County.

4th Annual "Commissioners Appreciation Breakfast"

Thursday, January 24, 2002

7:30 a.m. – Kendrick Media Center

Welcome

Dan Ray

Introduction of Guests

Steve Hughes

Prayer

William Greene

Breakfast Buffet

Presentation of KMS Memorabilia
to Commissioners

Administrative Team

Dismissal